The meeting focuses on relating to the separation between a parent and their children.

The meeting format is as follows:

Introduction - What are some of the current issues facing non-custodial parents? What are your concerns?

Speaker/Presentation - Past speakers have included Family Court judges, law guardians, child psychologists, and hearing examiners.

Members - The latter part of the meeting is dedicated to the individual needs of the members. One-on-one mentoring is provided if desired.

The Fathers' Rights Association of New York State, Inc. (F.R.A.N.Y.S.) is a charitable not-for-profit all volunteer educational organization that seeks, through equal parenting rights, to ensure that children maintain a continuing, nurturing relationship with both parents after divorce or separation.

FRA OBJECTIVES

Working to Keep

Fathers and Their Children

TOGETHER

Your children are the most precious part of your life. You are always their parent and will cherish them for a lifetime.

Don't let others decide your fate.

You may lose your children,

Unless you take action now!

Fighting for Tomorrow

Your children have two parents at birth and should maintain that right throughout their lives. The present court system is so overwhelmed, that often the best interests of your children are forgotten.

While you should not be required to fight to maintain your parenting rights, the sad truth is that you must.

Take the time now and ensure your relationship with your children!
